(BLACK PR WIRE) – Merrillville, IN – RazzmatazzTV.com features documentary style TV shows, rare footage, established and up and coming artists, captures romance around the world and showcases singers and rappers in a world wide web competition. Darlene M. Washington has once again taken her passion to the Web, with a previous successful website www.DMWBooks.com. Her latest venture is a unique website entitled www.RazzmatazzTV.com where you'll find the documentary style TV shows the $5 Holla, Dare To Go There and Spiritually Intriguing. For romantic gestures something like you would scribe on a tree or post in a Valentine's Day special, there's Razzy Love which boasts pictures of loving couples, wedding proposals, a couple matching game and more. The up and coming online singing/rap competition, the Razzle Dazzle Awards allows contestants to enter at their confidence level while maintaining their position to stay in the game. Celebrity commentators will give feedback on contestant's performances.

The Producer's Favorites is where RazzmatazzTV.com producers Darlene M. Washington, Trey M. Washington and Kyle A. Washington showcase things found to be Razz Worthy. If you get the impression that the meaning of "Razz Worthy" is crazy, fun and somewhat mysterious, it's on purpose. "Razz worthy means exactly: uniquely qualified subjects and activities," says Darlene M. Washington, Executive Producer of the website and programming. "We like the stuff that doesn't get the play it deserves," she ends. RazzmatazzTV.com is for mature audiences, individuals 18+.

The $5 Holla promotes businesses while giving cash prizes to individuals for answering daring questions. Dare To Go There addresses tender and embarrassing topics in people's lives. And Spiritually Intriguing touches on today's morals in society from a spiritual point of view. You can also view any video on RazzmatazzTV.com at YouTube.com/dmwbooks.
